PART-TIME SOCIOLOGY LECTURER POSITION

The University of Wisconsin-Marathon County and the University of Wisconsin Colleges Department of Anthropology and Sociology invite applications for a Sociology instructor (rank of Associate Lecturer, Lecturer, or Senior Lecturer depending on educational background and experience) for the fall semester of 2015. The UW-Marathon County campus (uwmc.uwc.edu), located in Wausau in north central Wisconsin, is one of 13 campuses that comprise the UW Colleges (uwc.edu), the freshman-sophomore transfer institution within the UW System. The UW Colleges offer an excellent liberal arts and pre-professional education for students beginning work toward a bachelor’s degree.

Position
The prospective candidate will teach the following course:
- SOC 231 – Sociology of Crime and Criminal Justice, time and days TBA

   Course description: Explores the nature of crime and reviews ideas about definitions, causes, and solutions. Includes an introduction to the day-to-day functioning of the criminal justice system, the police, lawyers, courts, and correctional personnel. Prereq: Not recommended for first-semester students. SS (3 credits)

Enrollment in the course is capped at 38 students. The prospective candidate would also hold regular office hours for students.

Qualifications
- Ph.D. or ABD in Sociology preferred
- Minimum degree requirement is a Master’s Degree in Sociology
- Teaching experience at the university level

Starting Date
Contract runs from August 26 through January 9; classes begin on September and end December, with final exams to follow.

Salary
Salary and Instructional Academic Staff rank are dependent on highest degree held and amount of experience, with a range of $3612 - $4140 for the course.

Application Deadline
Applications will be reviewed as they are received and will be accepted until the position is filled. We will attempt to fill the position as quickly as feasible, so early submission of your application is important for priority consideration.

Application
If you are interested in this position and believe you are qualified, please e-mail the following to Dr. Ann Herda-Rapp (ann.herda-rapp@uwc.edu), Chair of the Department of Anthropology and Sociology:
- Short letter of application
- Curriculum vitae
- Names, phone numbers and e-mail addresses of 3 references, especially those who are familiar with your teaching
- Copies of all university transcripts (official or unofficial)
- A statement of whether the applicant wishes to have the application held in confidence or made available to the public upon request. If requested, confidentiality of an application can be maintained until an applicant is deemed a finalist in the search. There is no penalty to applicants who wish to have their applications held in confidence.

For further information, please contact Dr. Herda-Rapp or Dr. Ron Lippi, Associate Dean, UW-Marathon County, at 715-261-6262 or by email at ronald.lippi@uwc.edu.

Employment will require a criminal background check.

Employment is contingent on establishment of identity and verification of employment eligibility as required by the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986. The University of Wisconsin Colleges is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action institution committed to diversity and inclusiveness among its employees and in its programs, and actively seeks and encourages applications from women, minorities and persons with disabilities.

The University of Wisconsin Colleges is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action institution committed to diversity and inclusiveness among its employees and in its programs, and actively seeks and encourages applications from women, minorities and persons with disabilities.