Monday, December 9
Music Majors Recital
Performances by
Student Music Majors
Ann Applegate, coordinator

Music lovers will be able to enjoy these three, free performances as the university’s music department hosts its 2013 Winter Performances.

The UWMC Concert Band and Jazz Ensemble will present music from a variety of traditional and contemporary sources, such as Robert E. Foster’s Emmanuel Variants and In The Bleak Midwinter, arranged by Robert W. Smith and featuring UWMC clarinet students Lexy Henkelman and Jamie Gronski. Arrangements including Alfred Newman’s Street Scene, featuring Steven Beda on trombone, and a Stan Kenton “Hits” medley will be among the numbers performed by the Jazz Ensemble. The UWMC Concert Choir, Jazz Central Voices and UWMC Vocal Jazz Ensemble will be taking the stage on Sunday with a variety of songs, including Christmas carols in English and French, traditional holiday songs, plus more.

The performances will conclude Monday, December 9, with the Music Majors Recital.
