International Dinner Lecture
An Evening in East Africa
with Dr. Robin Wilde
6:15 - 7:15 pm, UWMC Auditorium
$5 to general public, free to UWMC Students.
Robin Wilde will detail the work that his Foundation for Hope in Africa (FFHIA) has been doing in Tanzania, Uganda, Burundi, Ethiopia and Kenya. The FFHIA was organized in 2007 and has since been building orphanages, schools, and water wells in eight countries across Africa. This video and photo presentation will take us to the villages and towns of some of the remote places where Wilde and his team have been providing developmental work for the past six years.

Learning to Fly:
A Festival of the Arts and Sciences
1,000 Words Wausau: Flight
6 pm, Peking Restaurant, Wausau
1,000 Words Wausau features a rotating lineup of area writers who take on wordy challenges and then meet to read their results in public venues. This challenge will feature prompts based on “flight,” inviting exploration of the word and related ideas in poetry or other short writing forms.

November 4-29
November 7, Lecture and Opening
Learning to Fly:
A Festival of the Arts and Sciences
Artist Exhibit: Tom Fleming
Exhibit: November 4-29, 8 am-5 pm weekdays.
Ahrnsbrak Room.
Lecture: November 7, 7 pm.
Room 180.
Artist Tom Fleming on the exhibit: “My glass work using aerial landscape emphasizes the unconscious marks and patterns left from man-made structures such as roads and factories. Combining multiple aerial images together into interrupted, non-linear but cohesive models, I’m attempting to derive a new landscape that can be experienced both literally and metaphorically.”

Learning to Fly: A Festival of the Arts and Sciences
Business of Flight: CWA and the Impact on the Community
by Tony Yaron

7 pm, UWMC Auditorium

In our region, Central Wisconsin Airport serves as a hub for some of the nation’s most innovative businesses and industries, helping them interact, deliver and collaborate on a global scale. CWA has grown from its 1969 first-year count of 39,000 departing passengers to a 2010 count of 160,000. The airport completed a concourse renovation in 1998 and undertook a 2011 terminal expansion of $30 million, to be completed in 2014. CWA was one of 19 recipients (from an applicant pool of 74) awarded a $250,000 U.S. Department of Transportation Small Community Air Service Development Program grant, the only Wisconsin airport to receive such an honor.

November 7

Architecture & Design Lecture Series:
Pecha Kucha Night
7-9 pm, UW CCE Sonnentag Room

Pecha Kucha Night was devised in Tokyo in 2003 as an event for young designers to meet, network, and show their work in public. The 20 images in 20 seconds pace keeps things moving and makes the presentations concise.

For more information, contact Continuing Education at 715-261-6294.
