  Not Rated. 85 minutes
- February 27 -The Assault, 7 p.m.
  Rated R. 95 minutes

The third film UWMC will be showing is Farewell, My Queen. A French drama film directed by Benoît Jacquot. It gives a fictional account of the last days of Marie Antoinette in power seen through the eyes of Sidonie Laborde, a young servant who reads aloud to the queen.

The fourth film to be shown is Berlin 1885: The Division of Africa. Using actual transcripts taken down at the time, Berlin 1885: The Division of Africa combines reenactments of the Berlin Conference on Africa proceedings and previously unexplored archival materials, with the insights of historians and scholars from six nations, to discuss the politics, implications, and legacy of the first international conference about Africa.

Films shown in French.
