Do the Benefits of College Still Outweigh the Costs?

Volume 20, Number 3: 2014

Authors: Jaison R. Abel and Richard Deitz

In recent years, students have been paying more to attend college and earning less upon graduation—trends that have led many observers to question whether a college education remains a good investment. However, an analysis of the economic returns to college since the 1970s demonstrates that the benefits of both a bachelor’s degree and an associate’s degree still tend to outweigh the costs, with both degrees earning a return of about 15 percent over the past decade. The return has remained high in spite of rising tuition and falling earnings because the wages of those without a college degree have also been falling, keeping the college wage premium near an all-time high while reducing the opportunity cost of going to school.

Read full report online:

UWMC Scholarships with Separate Applications
(Also found on UWMC’s scholarship webpage)

- Peter Okray Memorial Scholarship
- Dorothy Jaqueline Schinker Memorial Scholarship
- Clyde F. Schlueter Foundation Scholarship

Free Scholarship Searches:

- www.scholarshipexperts.com
- www.careersandcolleges.com
- www.fastweb.com
- www.collegeanswer.com

Remember to apply for UWMC’s scholarships!!!

There is only one application to fill out that applies to over 100 UWMC scholarships!

But, it must be completed by March 1st!

See the website or stop down in Student Affairs for more information!

http://uwmc.uwc.edu/admissions/paying/scholarships

Do You Have a Disability?

If you have a documented disability you may be eligible for accommodations. Accommodations are support services that help students who have a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more life activities (e.g. communication, mobility, learning, etc.). A couple of common disabilities are ADHD and dyslexia. If you are not sure if you qualify for accommodations or have questions, please contact Amber Ruff-Brei at 715-261-6356 or amber.ruffbrei@uwc.edu or simply stop by Student Affairs to schedule an appointment.